

Dennis Moore

ANIMAL HISTORIAN

Education	2024-2026	University of South Florida MA in history
	2022-2024	University of South Florida BA in history
Presentations	2026	No Simple Sort: Pet Cemeteries in Twentieth Century Florida American Society for Environmental History National Conference
	2025	America's Cow – Sandhill Cranes as Food in Florida and the Midwest American Society for Environmental History Online (ASEH Connects)
	2024	No Simple Sort: Pet Cemeteries in the United States Fifth Annual Undergraduate Research Conference at the University of South Florida
	2023	The Forgotten Irish: Animals as Actors in Irish Society American Conference for Irish Studies
		Four-Legged Imperialists: Dogs and the Conquest of the Americas Florida Historical Society Annual Symposium
Papers with Original Research		No Simple Sort The Emergence of Pet Cemeteries in 19 th Century America
		America's Cow The Sandhill Crane & Their History as Food
		Why Make it Bad When You Could Make It Worse? The Alafia River and Resource Exhaustion in West Central Florida
		Whiteboys and the Ascendancy Local Rebellions Against Local Tyrants
Achievements & Experience	Fall 2024-Spring 2026	Awarded a Graduate Assistant position during M.A. program
	Fall 2023	Joined Phi Alpha Theta in Spring 2023, formally inducted in Spring 2024, and assumed the position of Treasurer
	Fall 2021	Dean's List at Hillsborough Community College